

Help protect your employees and business from mobile threats

Verizon Business Mobile Internet Security offers immediate security protection for your company smartphones on the Verizon network—with no installation required.

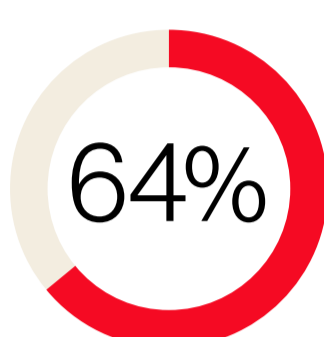

Mobile threats are on the rise

According to the Verizon 2024 Mobile Security Index, 53% of companies surveyed have suffered a mobile compromise—up from fewer than 30% in 2018.¹ Verizon Business Mobile Internet Security can help protect your smartphones from cyberthreats to avoid business disruption, financial losses and damage to your company’s reputation.

85% of respondents say risks from mobile device threats have increased in the past year.²

64% believe they are at significant or extreme risk from mobile device threats.³

Verizon Business Mobile Internet Security provides robust smartphone protection

Help protect your company smartphones from cyberattack and enable productivity from virtually anywhere.

Smartphone security that helps you stay safe when accessing the internet via Verizon’s mobile network

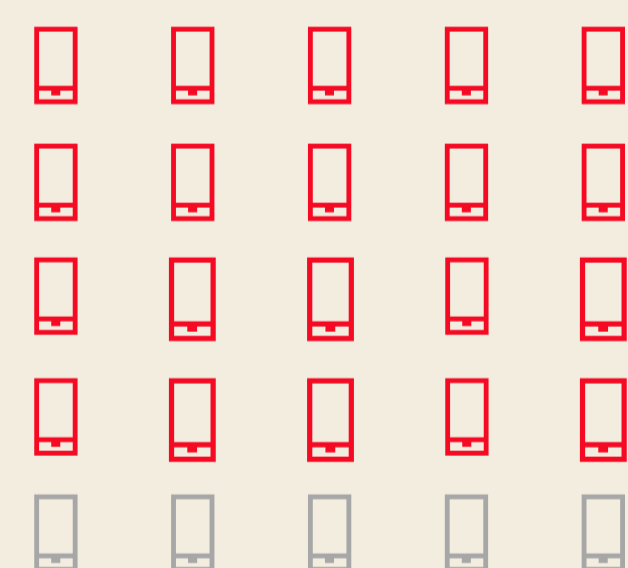

A zero-touch solution—once your smartphone is connected to the Verizon mobile network, the protection starts

Protection for smartphones on eligible plans, regardless of make or model

Help guard against cyberthreats such as phishing and ransomware

State-of-the-art filtering and anti-virus engine checks for known internet threats

Budget-friendly pricing with no long-term commitment

80% of respondents agree mobile devices are critical to the smooth running of their organizations.⁴

92% of respondents say their organizations support some form of remote connectivity.⁵

Why Verizon

For more than 25 years, Verizon has helped organizations of all sizes protect critical apps, information and services from potential attacks. Our comprehensive portfolio of business security solutions and services covers everything from threat identification and detection to response and recovery.

15+

years of cyberbreach and incident trend analysis in the Verizon Data Breach Investigations Report

9

Security Operations Centers worldwide analyzing more than 20 terabytes of signals and 500,000 incidents each year

25+

years of security experience

Learn more

Sign up on My Business or reach out to your Verizon representative to find out how you can bolster your smartphone security with Verizon Business Mobile Internet Security. For more information, visit verizon.com/businessmobileinternetsecurity.

1. "2024 Mobile Security Index," Verizon, 2024. <https://www.verizon.com/business/resources/reports/mobile-security-index>
 2. Ibid.
 3. Ibid.
 4. Ibid.
 5. Ibid.

